

The Rector's Unusual Award

On the 30th April, the Revd David Gilmore, rector of St Anne's Anglican Church, Soho, was honoured to discover that he had been awarded one of the 2010 Erotic Awards in the category of Pioneer. The Erotic Awards site states "(Gilmore) who, in 2009, stood up for the Soho sex workers in court in their defence, saying their house did not cause any public nuisance. The result: they got let off! We were delighted that he accepted his nomination, another sign of his openness to sexuality, and he says he feels honoured. They should make him an Archbishop for his exemplary attitude."

<http://www.thisislondon.co.uk/standard/article-23644695-rector-in-court-to-support-soho-brothel.do>

Reverend David Gilmore (UK)

